Services and information for older adults and adults with disabilities in Wake County, North Carolina

SUBSIDIZED AND AFFORDABLE HOUSING OPTIONS

Last updated: 02/08/2022

There are two basic types of low-income housing available in Wake County:

1. Subsidized housing: Rent is a percentage of income (usually 30% after allowing for certain deductions). A government subsidy pays the rest of the rental cost. Most public housing is subsidized housing. This type of housing does not accept Section 8 housing vouchers because the rents are already subsidized.
2. Affordable housing, sometimes called tax credit properties: Rents are lower than market rate, typically because the developers receive a tax credit. Rents for a given size of unit may be the same for all residents, or there may be two or more levels, or tiers, of pricing depending on income. This type of housing does accept Section 8 housing vouchers, but it is up to the individual property as to whether they will accept them.

Some complexes are for seniors only, so they have a minimum age requirement (55+ or 62+). Some have exceptions to the age requirement for adults with disabilities. In many cases only one member of the household needs to meet the age requirement (a younger spouse or family member may live there); ask the property manager to verify this for a particular property.

Eligibility for subsidized and affordable housing is based on income. The applicant's income must be below a set limit to qualify; limits are usually based on the median (middle) income for the county and change each year. Most properties use either 50% or 60% of the median income as their maximum eligibility limit. There is often a minimum income requirement as well as a maximum income limit. Assets (such as savings or investments) may be considered as a source of income.

The demand for low-income housing in Wake County exceeds the supply. Most complexes have waiting lists of a year or more. It is not impossible to find an affordable apartment in Wake County, but it will require patience.

If possible, plan ahead and begin looking well in advance of when you need to move. We understand that the search process can be time-consuming and frustrating. Here are some tips:

- Get on as many waiting lists as possible, as soon as possible. Applying at several properties may increase your chances of finding an apartment sooner than expected.
- Most properties will offer to mail an application to you if you are unable to fill one out on-site or access one online.
- When calling properties, you may often get an answering machine instead of a live voice. Leave a message. The manager will return your call.

The following information was correct to the best of our knowledge when this list was last updated. Verify by calling the properties you are interested in. Rents and income limits may change.

SENIOR APARTMENTS

This is a complete listing of subsidized and affordable senior apartment complexes in Wake County, as of our latest update. These complexes are generally for adults ages 55+ or 62+; some have exceptions to the minimum age requirement for younger adults with disabilities.
